Edwards, CO (December 3, 2007) -- The Lodge & Spa at Cordillera, A RockResort, is offering men the chance to experience some of the most extreme, adventurous sports in the Rockies - followed by some serious pampering!

The Men's Spa Boot Camp package, available now through March 23, includes the following:

- Two nights luxury accommodations
- One full day ice climbing lesson OR 1 full day of snowmobile rental
- One Mountain Man spa treatment per person

Rates start at $247 per person per night, representing a savings of 15 percent. Package is based on double occupancy with a two-night minimum stay.

Guys can experience the sensation of climbing up a frozen waterfall with a private ice-climbing lesson. Numerous ice climbs form each year, from easy slabs to a 120-foot free-standing pillar of ice known as "The Fang." Guests can also opt to enjoy a rush of adrenaline, spectacular views of the Rocky Mountains, and lots of snow as they cruise through the Rockies on their very own snowmobiles.

After a day of rigorous adventure, one can look forward to a relaxing and revitalizing treatment at the RockResorts Spa. The Mountain Man spa treatment begins with a state-of-the-art tri-crystal scrub made from Dead Sea salts, dried sugar cane, and magnesium oxide crystals. An herbal liniment rub follows the scrub to tone the skin and stimulate the mind. The treatment is concluded with an herbal spice lotion massage.

Focusing on wellness and longevity, the 20,000 square-foot RockResorts Spa at Cordillera exists to nurture the body, mind, and spirit. In the finest European tradition, the professional, highly trained staff uses signature treatments that guide spa-goers toward balance and overall wellbeing.
