ABOUT: Trump International Hotel & Tower Chicago promises to be one of the city's premier luxury destinations. The 92-story building is located in the heart of Chicago, offering awe-inspiring views of Lake Michigan, the Chicago River and the city skyline from its floor-to-ceiling windows. The tower features 286 one-, two- and three-bedroom guestroom suites, each with custom-designed furnishings and fully-equipped kitchens in addition to 53 spa guestrooms, which will be unveiled along with The Spa at Trump later in 2008. Trump International Hotel & Tower will also include 486 of the city's most luxurious residences. Both hotel guests and residents will enjoy the unparalleled services of Trump's signature Attaché Guest Services. Upon opening, guests will have access to amenities including world-class meeting and event facilities and the hotel's signature restaurant, Sixteen, under the helm of Chef Frank Brunacci. Sixteen will serve its daily breakfast menu immediately, while lunch and dinner service will be available beginning February 6. The hotel's Rebar lounge and Trump Health Club, featuring a 75-foot heated swimming pool, will open in late February.
