SERENITY & SUNSETS SEDUCTION AT WYNDHAM SUGAR BAY RESORT & SPA

ST. THOMAS, USVI –JAN. 10, 2007–As new trends are on the rise for couples seeking a romantic rendezvous, whether to celebrate a honeymoon, slip away on a baby-moon or simply escape from wedding planning on a mini-moon, "Serenity & Sunsets" envelops devoted duos at Wyndham Sugar Bay Resort & Spa in St. Thomas, all-inclusive starting at $613/night, now through Dec. 31, 2007. From sensual treatments with stress relieving aromatic oils at an award winning spa and a picturesque sail into the sunset to sharing a cozy, yet mouthwatering Chef's Table dinner in Tuscany and hand-fed chocolate covered fruit at "nap time," couples toast to true love and an "affair to remember" while gazing over turquoise aquascape views.

"SERENITY & SUNSETS"
WYNDHAM SUGAR BAY RESORT & SPA
ALL-INCLUSIVE AS LOW AS $613/NIGHT* FOR TWO
NOW THROUGH DEC. 31, 2007

- Sensual Massages for Two (80 min.)
- Chilled Veuve Cliquot Champagne
- Scenic Accommodations
- Smith Bay Sunset Sail
- Cozy Chefs Table in Tuscany
- In-Room Chocolate Dipped Fruit

Lovers begin setting the mood, sipping chilled Veuve Cliquot "bubbly" and relaxing by the three sparkling inter-connecting pools with breathtaking views of the mystique-filled, neighboring Virgin Islands. Sun-kissed skin glistens after soothing hour-plus long massages at Journeys Spa, voted "Best Resort Spa in the U.S.V.I." by the World Travel Awards in London. Days themed "delicious" surround the pair with chocolate dipped fruit room service and an intimate dinner for two in Tuscany, Wyndham Sugar Bay's signature Italian restaurant, including delectable options such as shrimp and ricotta filled ravioli smothered in a creamy alfredo sauce, followed by a juicy, sautéed chicken breast topped with spinach, prosciutto and melted mozzarella cheese. Dinner is sweetly topped off with luscious tiramisu and a bottle of premium wine or champagne, sure to put lovebirds in an amorous frame of mind. Culminating the romantic retreat, a sunset cruise for two makes for a scene from a favorite movie classic, as turtledoves snuggle up and sail into the pink and orange sky as the sun slips down, painting the perfect backdrop.

Carved into a mountainside of 31 lush, tropical acres, the newly renovated 300 guest rooms and suites at Wyndham Sugar Bay Resort & Spa reveal stunning views of infinite emerald landscapes from an ocean side cliff overlooking the glittering turquoise waters of Smith Bay. With its own private beach for sunbathing sweethearts or water sport enthusiasts and nightly live entertainment for late night dancing, this all-inclusive Caribbean headquarters satisfies every personality.

As part of a U.S. territory, the U.S. Virgin Islands is exempt from the Western Hemisphere Travel Initiative effective Jan. 23, 2007, which requires a passport for travel to all Caribbean islands, Canada and Mexico. Wyndham Sugar Bay Resort & Spa continues to be a hassle free Caribbean vacation option for travelers who do not have months to plan and money to spare on expensive passports.
