

Kurotel to Open a Wellness Facility in Japan

The award winning Longevity Center and Spa announces the opening of a Japanese based unit to attend the world's longest living people

Brazil, October 3rd, 2007 – Recently awarded with the prestigious Spa Finder Crystal Award for the best spa of the continent and World Travel Awards for South America Leading Spa for the third year in a row, the Brazilian based Kurotel Longevity Center and Spa has announced the opening of a new wellness facility in one of the world's longest living people countries: Japan. Surveys completed by the government shows that Japan is ageing quicker than any other country in the world. After long scientific researches sharing and with similar high-end health technology, Kurotel has joined forces with CMIC Co., a leader Japanese health entrepreneur to offer an unprecedented health experience. The new center is located in the city of Kobuchizawa, in central Japan. In 2006, Kurotel has announced the opening of the first two wellness facilities: the first one in the beach of Porto de Galinhas in the north of Brazil; and the second in a living community in the Bavarian style city of Gramado.
